**PROBLEM DESCRIPTION**

Caller: (background noise of store announcements) Sorry, bear with me for a sec... Okay, so they're trying to clock in, but their password isn't being recognized. We've tried resetting it, but it's not taking.

Agent: Alright, got it. And have you tried contacting our IT department to see if they can assist with the issue?

Caller: Not yet, I was hoping we could get some help from Asset Protection first. (pause) Oh, sorry, I've got a customer waiting... (briefly puts caller on hold)
